Introit: Omnis terra adoret te All the earth shall worship you, Chant 122, The Parish Psalter, J.
Nares

Processional Hymn NEH 485 Thy hand, O God, has guided (tune: Thornbury)

Collect:

Almighty God,
who caused the light of the gospel
to shine throughout the world
through the preaching of your servant Saint Paul:
grant that we who celebrate his wonderful conversion may follow him in bearing witness to your truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-10

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,

‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.’

Then I said, ‘Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.’ But the Lord said to me,

‘Do not say, “I am only a boy”;
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you.
Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,
says the Lord.’

Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me,

‘Now I have put my words in your mouth.
See, today I appoint you over nations and over
kingdoms,
to pluck up and to pull down,
to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant.’

Psalm 67, Chant 122, The Parish Psalter, J. Nares

God be merciful unto / us and / bless us: and shew
us the light of his countenance, and be / merci-ful /
unto / us:

That thy way may be / known · upon / earth: thy saving / health a /-mong all / nations.

Let the people / praise thee · O / God: yea let / all the / people / praise thee.

O let the nations re /-joice and · be / glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the / nations · up /-on / earth.

Let the people / praise thee O / God: yea let / all the / people / praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring / forth her / increase: and God even our own / God shall / give us · his / blessing:

God / shall / bless us: and all the / ends of · the / world shall / fear him.

Second Reading: Acts 9:1-22

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.' The men who were travelling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, 'Ananias.' He answered, 'Here I am, Lord.' The Lord said to him, 'Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.' But Ananias answered, 'Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.' But the Lord said to him, 'Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.' So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, 'Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.' And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, 'He is the Son of God.' All who heard him were amazed and said, 'Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem among those who invoked this name? And has he not come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?' Saul became increasingly more powerful and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Gradual Rouen Alleluia

Gospel Reading: Matthew 19:27-end

Peter said to Jesus 'Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?' Jesus said to them, 'Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Anglican Cycle of Prayer:

Iglesia Anglicana de Chile is the Anglican province serving Chile and has been part of the worldwide Anglican Communion as an autonomous province since 2018. Its roots go back to the nineteenth century, when Anglican congregations were first established mainly among immigrants and foreign residents, and later grew into Spanish-speaking Chilean communities across the country. Today the church is organised into four dioceses covering central and southern Chile, with congregations in both urban and rural areas. It is marked by Anglican liturgical tradition, pastoral care rooted in local communities, and an ongoing commitment to mission, theological education, social justice, and engagement with Indigenous peoples

Response of the Tower Hamlet's community to UKIP's plan for a so-called 'Walk with Jesus' march in Whitechapel.

On Monday Fr. Tom and other local clergy attended a meeting at the Town Hall to discuss this attempt to disrupt community harmony in Tower Hamlets using Christian identity as a weapon. Our disquiet as Christian leaders at such a blatant and cynical twisting of the Gospel message of love clearly registered with those who have responsibility for authorising and controlling public marches, and this one will not go ahead on the 31st January in Tower Hamlets. The full statement from United East End (Muslims and Christians and other faiths working together) can be read on our eNewsletter, along with a statement from Canon Dr Angus Ritchie from the Centre for Theology and Community.

Though the march will not now go ahead, you can still sign a petition registering your support for this stand against UKIP's motives and actions at <https://unitedeastend.org.uk>. Please be warned that the petition form isn't well-designed, and takes careful reading, but it is genuine and heart-felt. Fr. Tom
